SOLICITORS

Had an accident?

If you have been involved in an accident you could be entitled to compensation.

Your insurance company may refer you to a Solicitor anywhere in the country whom you will probably never meet.

Do you know that in many cases you can choose your own local solicitor at no extra cost?

We can offer “no win, no fee” agreements.

We deal with all types of accident claims, including:

Road traffic accidents – A claim can be made if you were a cyclist, pedestrian, driver or passenger in a vehicle, even if the other party is untraced or uninsured.

Accidents at work - Your employer has a legal duty to maintain health and safety standards at your place of work. If you suffer an accident as a result of a breach of this duty you may be entitled to claim compensation.

Tripping or slipping accidents – You may have tripped or slipped in a public place, indoors or outdoors.

Accidents involving children – If your child has been injured they may be entitled to compensation.

Fatal accidents - If you have lost someone close to you as a result of an accident compensation may be payable, particularly if you were financially dependent.

If you have suffered an injury you may be entitled to claim compensation if it can be proved that someone else was responsible for the accident, even if you were partially to blame.

You may be entitled to claim:

- Compensation for the pain you have suffered
- Loss of earnings, both past and future
- Cost of treatment and medication
- Care and assistance
- Travelling expenses
- Other losses suffered as a result of your accident

We will look at the circumstances of your case and advise you if we think your case will succeed.

In the majority of claims it is an insurance company that is responsible for the payment of compensation, not the individual involved in the accident.

You may already have legal expenses insurance. In most cases this does not prevent you from seeking advice from a solicitor of your choice.

We can offer you the same assistance with the benefit of a personal service and local knowledge.

We can offer a “no win, no fee” service for appropriate cases.
